

July 2025 Newsletter

Due to inclement weather on June 28th, the Sharon fireworks show will take place on Thursday, July 3rd at 9:30 pm! Its going to be great!

We will not have any food trucks there on Thursday but Sharon Grill we be offering 3 specials to choose from: Spaghetti Dinner w/drink $11.95, BBQ Sandwich w/potato salad $8.95 and BBQ plate w/2 sides $11.95. Come out and support our event!

We would like to thank the food and merchandise vendors that were here on the 28th despite the soaring temperatures and the storm that closed us down. The Finally Friday Band as always provided us with entertainment! A huge, special thanks to the following businesses in town that donated to our fireworks show: Betty Chason/Small World Academy, Amanda Dickson/Amanda's Sassy Scissors, Becky Baker/Broad River Wellness, Vinod Patel/Winn Express, and Kenny Jones/The Key Shop!

It is with a heavy heart that we mourn the loss of Mr. Herschel Brown Sr. Mr. Brown was a long time resident of Sharon and a friend to all. He served in the US Army Air Corps, was a member of the Palmetto Lodge 289 for over 50 years and also the Towns Mayor from 1951 – 1953. He owned and operated several businesses in the Town of Sharon including a dry-cleaning business as well as a convenience store. This store, now the Local Market is still referred to as “Brownies” by our local residents.

Mr. Browns 100th birthday was April 25th and celebrated in a big way by friends and family. His contagious smile and presence in town will truly be missed.

Friday, July 4th in honor of Independence Day, Town Hall will be closed.
